Jake Irvin

The Oklahoma Sooners junior starting pitcher and Jefferson alum is 6-1 with a 3.20 ERA in 12 starts this season. He has 88 strikeouts and 19 walks over 73 2/3 innings and earned his third Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Week honor after five shutout innings (10 strikeouts against TCU on May 4.

Bethel Baseball

Three players with ties to Bloomington helped the Royals clinch its first-ever MIAC Tournament title after Sunday's 8-0 win over St. John's at CHS Field. Seniors Jake Schubert and Noah Luedtke are Jefferson alums while senior Houston Droel is a St. Thomas Academy alum. Schuber had a fifth-inning walk. Luedtke improved to 5-0 after a four-hit, four-strikeout performance in seven innings of work in a 3-2 win over St. John's in the semifinals on Saturday.

Courtney Kopischke

Kennedy's sophomore pitcher raised her season total to 103 strikeouts over 58 1/3 innings this spring after fanning 12 BSM batters on Wednesday and 10 Chaska batters the day before.

Greta Koehler

The Kennedy junior ran to a second place finish in the 800 meter run in a PR time of 2:27.65 at the Section 3AAA True Team meet on May 8.

Alex Hermen

Jefferson's senior pole vaulter captured the Section 3AAA True Team title clearing 11 feet.

Treyton Madison

A Kennedy sophomore, Madison was fifth in the discus at the Section 3AAA True Team meet setting a new PR of 133 feet.

Grant Mendel

Kennedy's senior captain attack had five goals and two assists in Thursday's 16-14 win over 10th-ranked Holy Angels. He also had a goal in the 4-2 win over Jefferson on Tuesday.

Ethan Skophammer

The Eagles senior goaltender made 12 save in a 4-2 boys lacrosse win over Jefferson Tuesday.
